BIBLIOGRAPHY OF

SUICIDE AND CULTURE

RESEARCH

Tom Widger

suicideandculture@gmail.com / www.suicideandculture.wordpress.com

Version 13.04.2015
Contents

Anthropology ........................................................................................................................................... 2

Cross-cultural Psychiatry .......................................................................................................................... 8

Cross-cultural Suicidology .......................................................................................................................... 9

Ethnopsychiatry .......................................................................................................................................... 9

Grey literature ........................................................................................................................................... 9

Public Health, Global health, Epidemiology .............................................................................................. 10

Religious Studies ....................................................................................................................................... 12
Anthropology

Chua, J.L., 2012, ‘Tales of Decline: Reading Social Pathology into Individual Suicide in South India,’ Culture, Medicine, & Psychiatry, 36(2), 204-224.

Marecek, J., & Senadheera, C., 2012, “‘I drank it to put an end to me’: Narrating girls’ suicide and self-harm in Sri Lanka,’ Contributions to Indian Sociology, 46(1/2), 53-82.

Cross-cultural Psychiatry

Cross-cultural Suicidology

Ethnopsychiatry

Grey literature

Public Health, Global health, Epidemiology

Beautrais, A.L., 2006, ‘ Suicide in Asia,’ Crisis, 27(2), 55-57

Religious Studies

